About The Festival of Colors

The Festival of Colors is an annual festival in Naperville Community on Naperville River walk. The event began in 2009 with 12 vendors and a live music stage, and each year The Festival of Colors has grown in size and popularity. Last year there were over 20 vendors, a live music stages, and over 2,000 people attended!

The Festival of colors announces the passing of winter and arrival of spring. It welcomes the spring and celebrates the new energy of the season, festival that breathes joyful atmosphere of social merriment. People bury their hatchets with a warm embrace and throw their worries to the wind. Festival promotes friendship while offering an occasion to forgive and forget.

With throwing handfuls of brightly colored powder at friends and foes, festival invites all members of the public, from people with understanding of festival to ne'er-do-wells who simply get a kick out of chucking dyed flour at strangers to celebrate the festival of color.

Over 3,000 people are expected to attend the event in 2014.

What makes West Fest so unique?

The 2015 The Festival of Colors music stage will feature cutting edge live music. Featured headliners in the past have included rock band Timing is everything. The Traditional folk music with beats of Dhol and Bhagra is a unique feature for the festival

Target Audience

Last year, the Festival of Colors was a resounding success and got glowing tributes from the audience. As a part of our registration, we collected data about our audience. Around 50% of the audiences were Caucasians and 50% were Asians. Predominant among the Asians were Asian Indians as the Festival of Colors celebrates an Indian festival. The festival with its customary throwing of colors captured the imagination of the Caucasians and based on last year's reviews, a significant turnout of Caucasians is expected this year.

Around 55% of the audience was less than 35 year old. Out of this 55%, a significant 35% was made up of young couples in the age group of 25 to 35 years who were accompanied by children. The rest of the audience comprised of 25% in the age group of 35 to 55 years and the remaining were seniors over 55 years.

More than 65% of the audiences were home-owners and 45% had family income between $75,000 to $100,000. 30% of the audience had family income between $100,000 and $150,000. This data is corroborated by Naperville's demographic statistics of high family income and median home prices.
